In Memory of

MISS ELLEN JEAN PATERSON

Teacher in the home economics department for twenty-three years, achieved an outstanding record in her chosen profession and was noted for her art and skill.

To her, with admiration for her achievement and with gratitude for her friendly interest in us, we, the members of the school, respectfully dedicate this LEAVES.

Our school board is interested in bettering the educational standards of children in this community. They often sacrifice much time and show deep devotion to duty in their efforts to render services to the school. The members are progressive and aware of the great contribution that public education is to the nation. This past year their main job has been planning the new high school building. We are grateful to them for the educational opportunities they have provided the youth of the community.

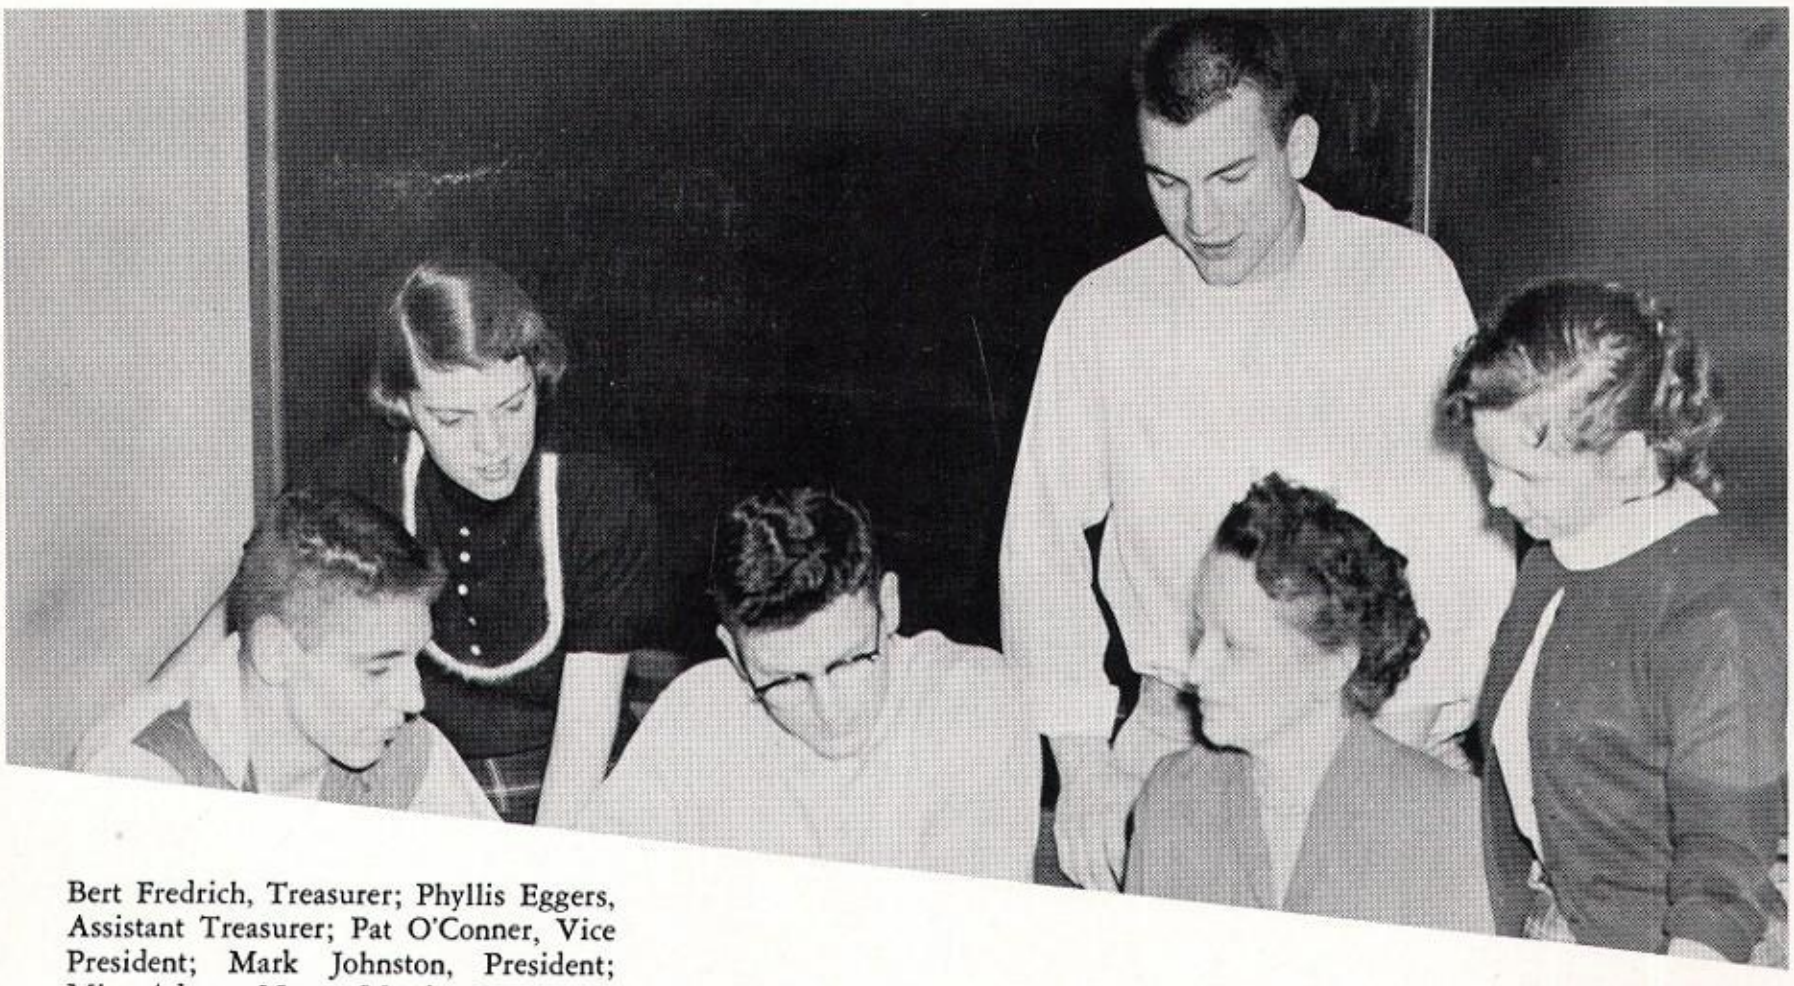
Seniors

Class of 1956



Bert Fredrich, Treasurer; Phyllis Eggers, Assistant Treasurer; Pat O'Conner, Vice President; Mark Johnston, President; Miss Adams, Nancy Martin, Secretary.

CLASS OF '56

As graduation draws nearer and nearer, the seniors begin to realize that their high school days are drawing to a close, and that they will soon pass through the doors of Sycohi for the final time. These past four years have been filled with many wonderful memories; memories that will be treasured forever by each senior.

Throughout their four years at Sycohi, the members of this class have assumed leadership in all of the organizations and have been active in all sports. Some of the activities of the seniors have been Homecoming, the class play, "Turn Back the Clock," which, with much hard work, was made a success; the G.A.A. Dance, and the Junior-Senior Prom. The National Honor Society, Student Council, Leaves and Syco-hi-Lites have been successfully managed by the seniors.

After a memorable Class Day, the Seniors of 1956 donned their caps and gowns for their final role as high school students.

Sycohi's best wishes go witn them as they leave to take their places in the world.

Who's Who in '56

Charlene Albrecht—Laughs the longest.
Roberta Anderson—Light headed—no, we mean a blonde.
Dorothy Arneson—Cutest dimples.
Jean Askins—Beautiful and sweet and quite petite.
Loretta Astling—Even the most sane and sensible of students have a pleasant giggle.
Dorothy Becker—Women of few words are few.
Gene Behler—Love me, love my car, but stay away from my girl.
Elaine Benson—Short, but sweet!
Fran Blade—Where'd the hair go?
Ronny Bowman—He is little, he is wise, he's a terror for his size.

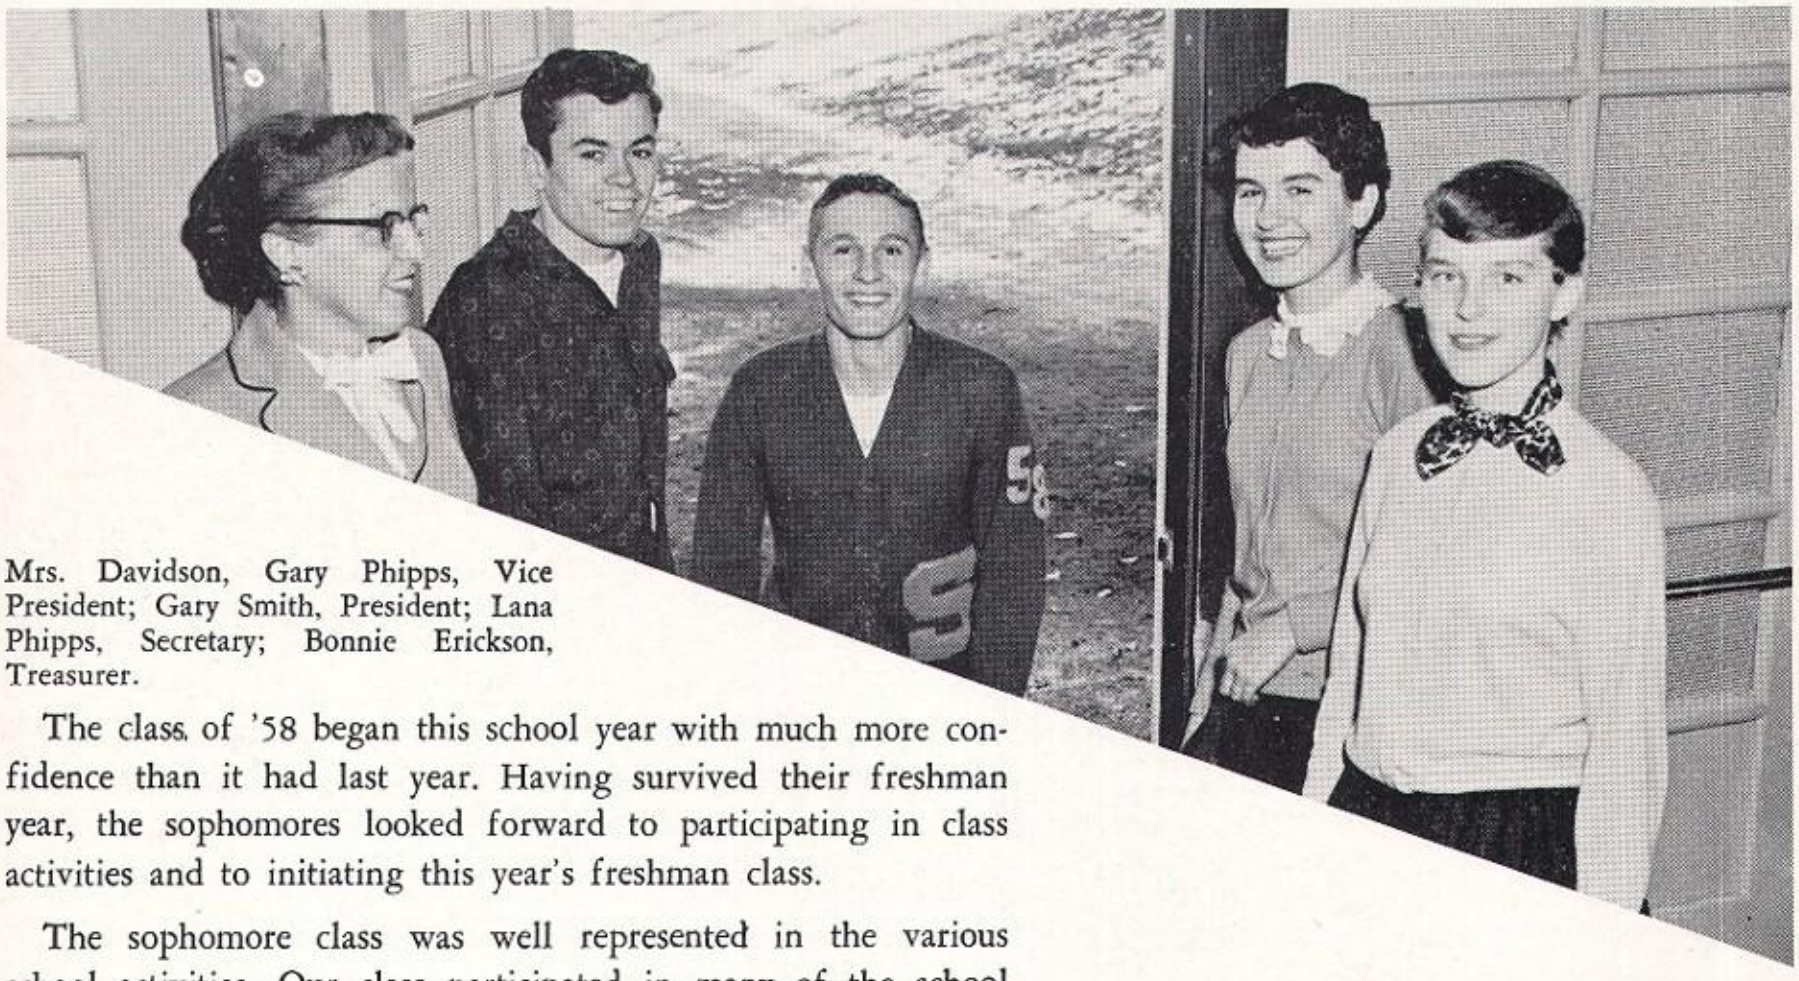
A High School Remembrance!

Class of 1958



Mrs. Davidson, Gary Phipps, Vice President; Gary Smith, President; Lana Phipps, Secretary; Bonnie Erickson, Treasurer.

The class of '58 began this school year with much more confidence than it had last year. Having survived their freshman year, the sophomores looked forward to participating in class activities and to initiating this year's freshman class.

The sophomore class was well represented in the various school activities. Our class participated in many of the school organizations. The boys well represented the class in athletics. Led by the cheerleaders, the sophomores backed the boys with much enthusiasm. Members of the class also took part in the band and chorus activities.

The class of '58 is looking forward to the next two years as upperclassmen in high school.

Miss Jordan; Pat Brennan, President; Linda Frautschy, Vice President; Joyce Nordgren, Secretary; James Ward, Treasurer.

The day we had been awaiting so long finally arrived when we entered Sycohi as Freshmen. It continued to be interesting as we participated in the activities of the school. The boys took part in football, basketball, track, chorus, and F.F.A. The girls represented our class in G.A.A., F.H.A., Leaves, chorus and Pep Club. The class of 1959 hopes in the years to come, it will do its share in maintaining the high standards of Sycohi both in scholastics and in the extra-curricular projects leading toward good citizenship.

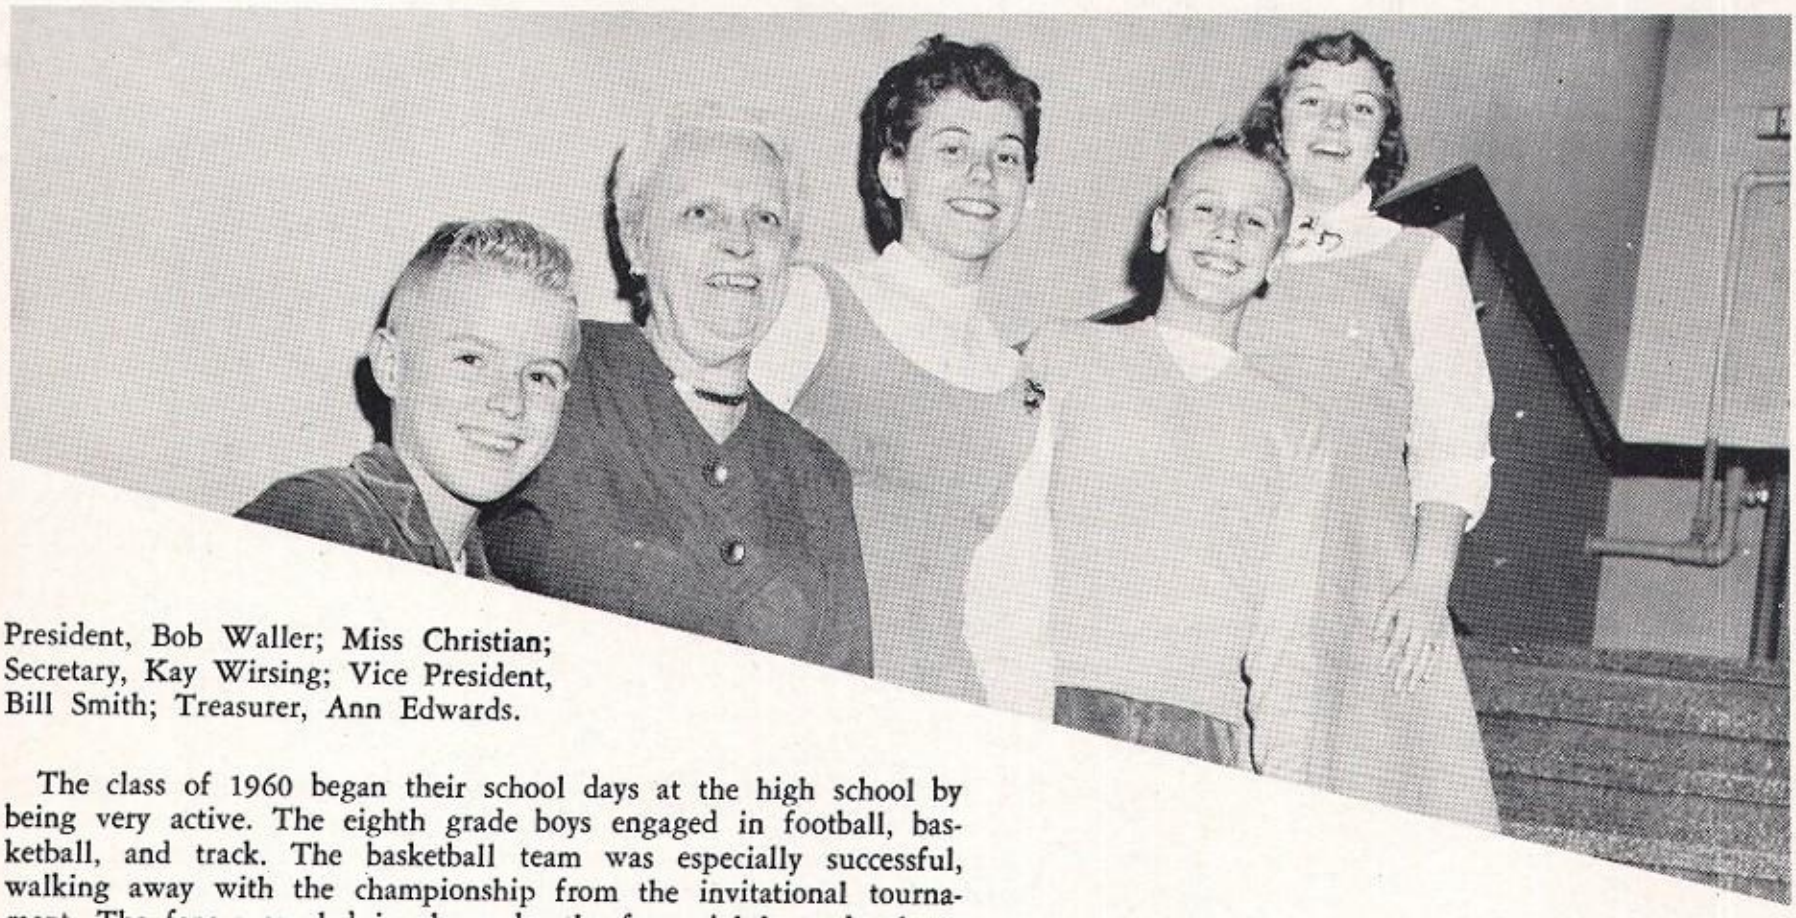
Class of 1960



President, Bob Waller; Miss Christian; Secretary, Kay Wirsing; Vice President, Bill Smith; Treasurer, Ann Edwards.

The class of 1960 began their school days at the high school by being very active. The eighth grade boys engaged in football, basketball, and track. The basketball team was especially successful, walking away with the championship from the invitational tournament. The fans were led in cheers by the four eighth grade cheerleaders.

Then, in the spring, the class of 1960 attended two special functions. One was the Big Sister-Little Sister tea put on for the girls by the juniors where they were told about the various high school activities. The second was the annual eighth grade dance on May 8. The dance was especially attractive this year with decorations centering around the theme, "The Ivory Tower."

And so as 1955-1956 came to a close, the eighth graders began looking forward to September when they will become a real part of the high school.

Varsity Football

The Sycamore Spartans started their 1955 season on September 16, by beating Morris, 43-0. Touchdowns were made by Henigan, Johnston, Mandery, Kitchen, Brown, and Florent. Sycamore gained 283 yards to Morris's 22.

The Spartans found little opposition on September 24 to their strong offensive attack and their stubborn defensive game at St. Thomas. The final score was Sycamore 41, St. Thomas 0.

In their first conference game on September 30, the Spartans trailed in scoring for three quarters. The score at the end of the third period was Naperville 12, Sycamore 6. The final period Sycamore came to life and scored 21 points. Scorers were Frederick, Johnston, Dunmore, and Henigan. Defensively Fredrick, Henigan, Lindgren, Tucker, and Dunmore were outstanding. Final score, Sycamore 27, Naperville 12.

On October 7, the Spartans spoiled Wego's homecoming by tromping them, 38-6. Those scoring were Henigan, Florent, Fredrick, and Johnston. Those playing exceptionally on defense were Lindgren, Fredrick, Holland, Tucker, Troutman, Dunmore, Johnston and Fred Sibley.

After 21 years of not winning a game from Wheaton, the Spartans gained revenge, but good, by beating them 26-0 on October 14. Both teams had a disadvantage, by the steady drizzle throughout the game. The Tigers gave the Spartans a good game though. Bob Lindgren led the defensive with 12 tackles. Offensively Johnston, Fredrick, and Florent did the scoring.

The Spartans spoiled another homecoming on October 21, by whipping Batavia, 39-0. The team again gave their usual fine performance. Offensively Sycamore gained 348 yards. Defensively they yielded only 101 yards.

On October 28, Sycamore's homecoming, Sycamore got back at Dundee for the 6-0 loss that Dundee gave them last year in the championship game by beating them 34-6. Sycamore got off to a fast start and, at the end of the first quarter, led 14-0. At half-time the score stood 21-0. Dundee got their only touchdown on a quarterback sneak from the one-yard line.

Sycamore again showed its strength by crushing Geneva, 32-0, on November 4. While the great Spartan offense stepped off 272 yards, the stubborn Spartan defense yielded only 91 yards.

The Spartans ended the 1955 season on November 10, with a 35-6 triumph over St. Charles. Johnston led in scoring with 19 points. Henigan had 13. The Spartans gained 435 yards to St. Charles's 98 yards. This was the final game of a high school season for seventeen seniors.

On October 3, we had our first assembly program when we were told by students from Taft and Maine High Schools about their Code of Ethics. We all had our T.B. shots this month. Then on October 10, the F.F.A. boys left for Chicago. The week before October 28 was a busy one with committees at work making floats, pom poms, etc. for Homecoming. That day was also College Day for the juniors and seniors.

The month of November was a busy one for the speech classes as they prepared for their stage debut to the assembly. The G.A.A. sponsored a square dance on the 5th. Then on Nov. 11 and 12, the annual senior class play was put on for the enjoyment of all. Twirp Week, which started Nov. 11, was concluded by the Sadie Hawkins dance on Nov. 19. Our basketball season started with Morris on Nov. 23. Then we were on a 2-day vacation for Thanksgiving.

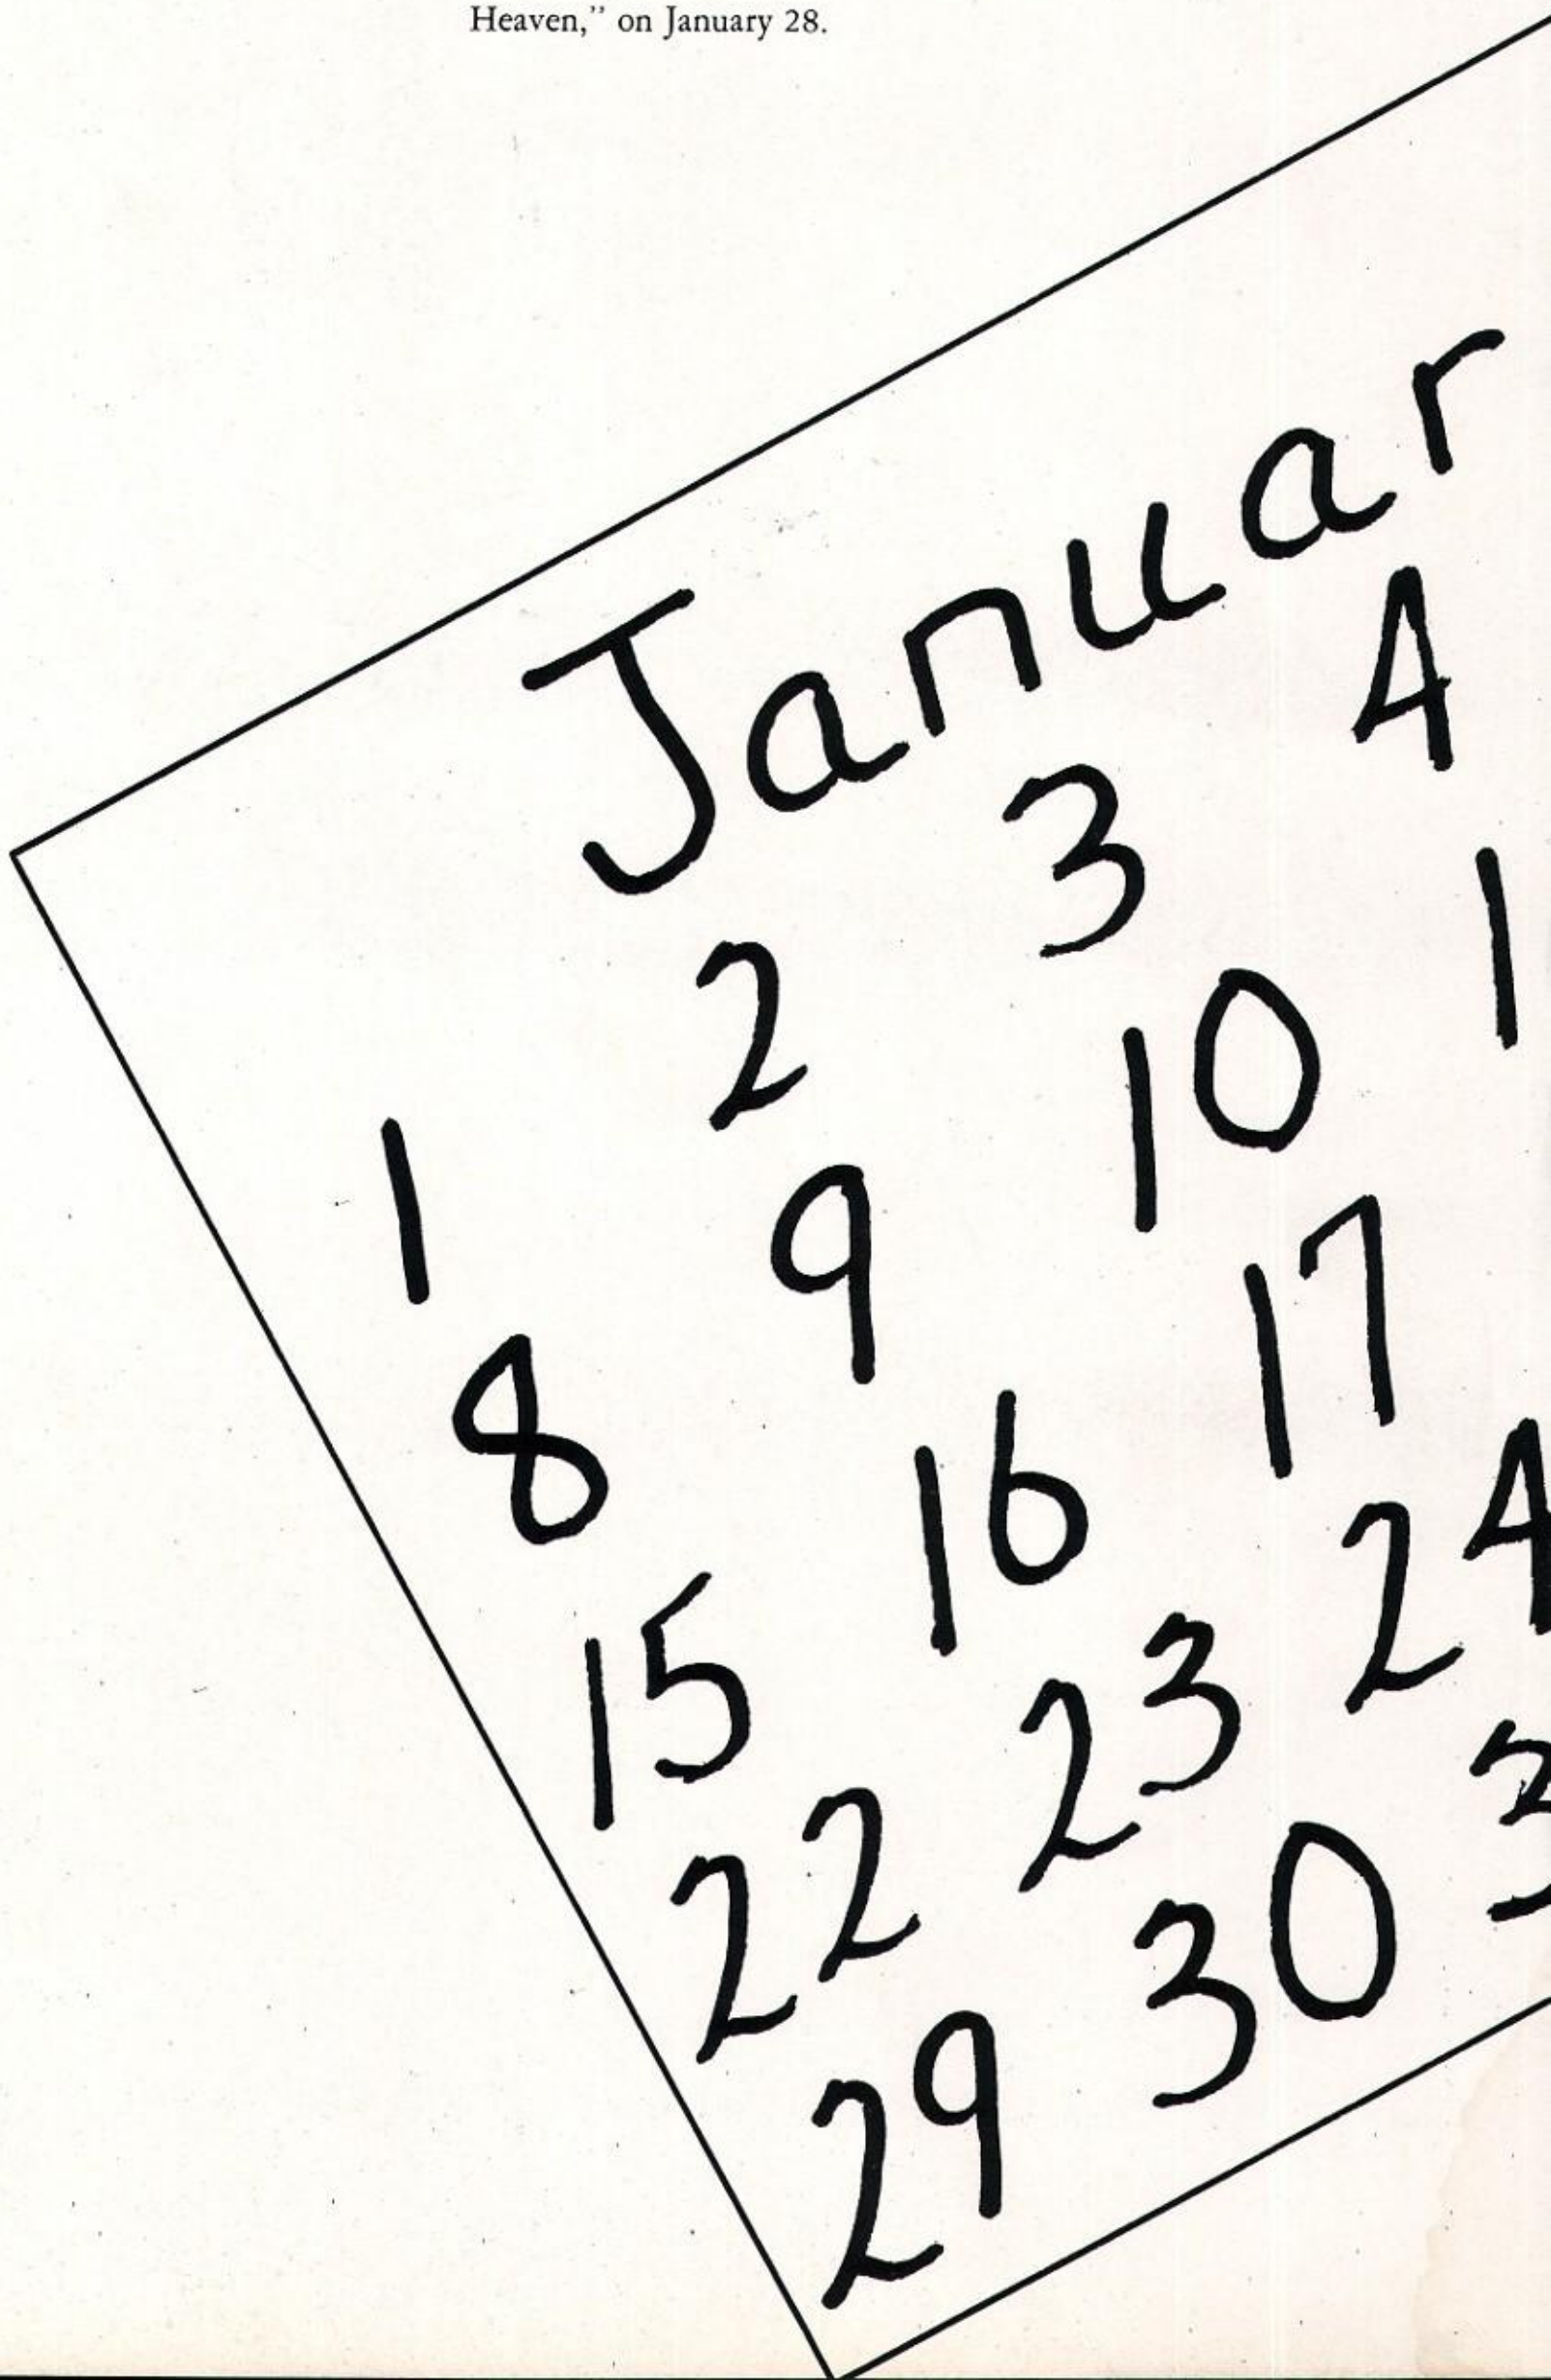
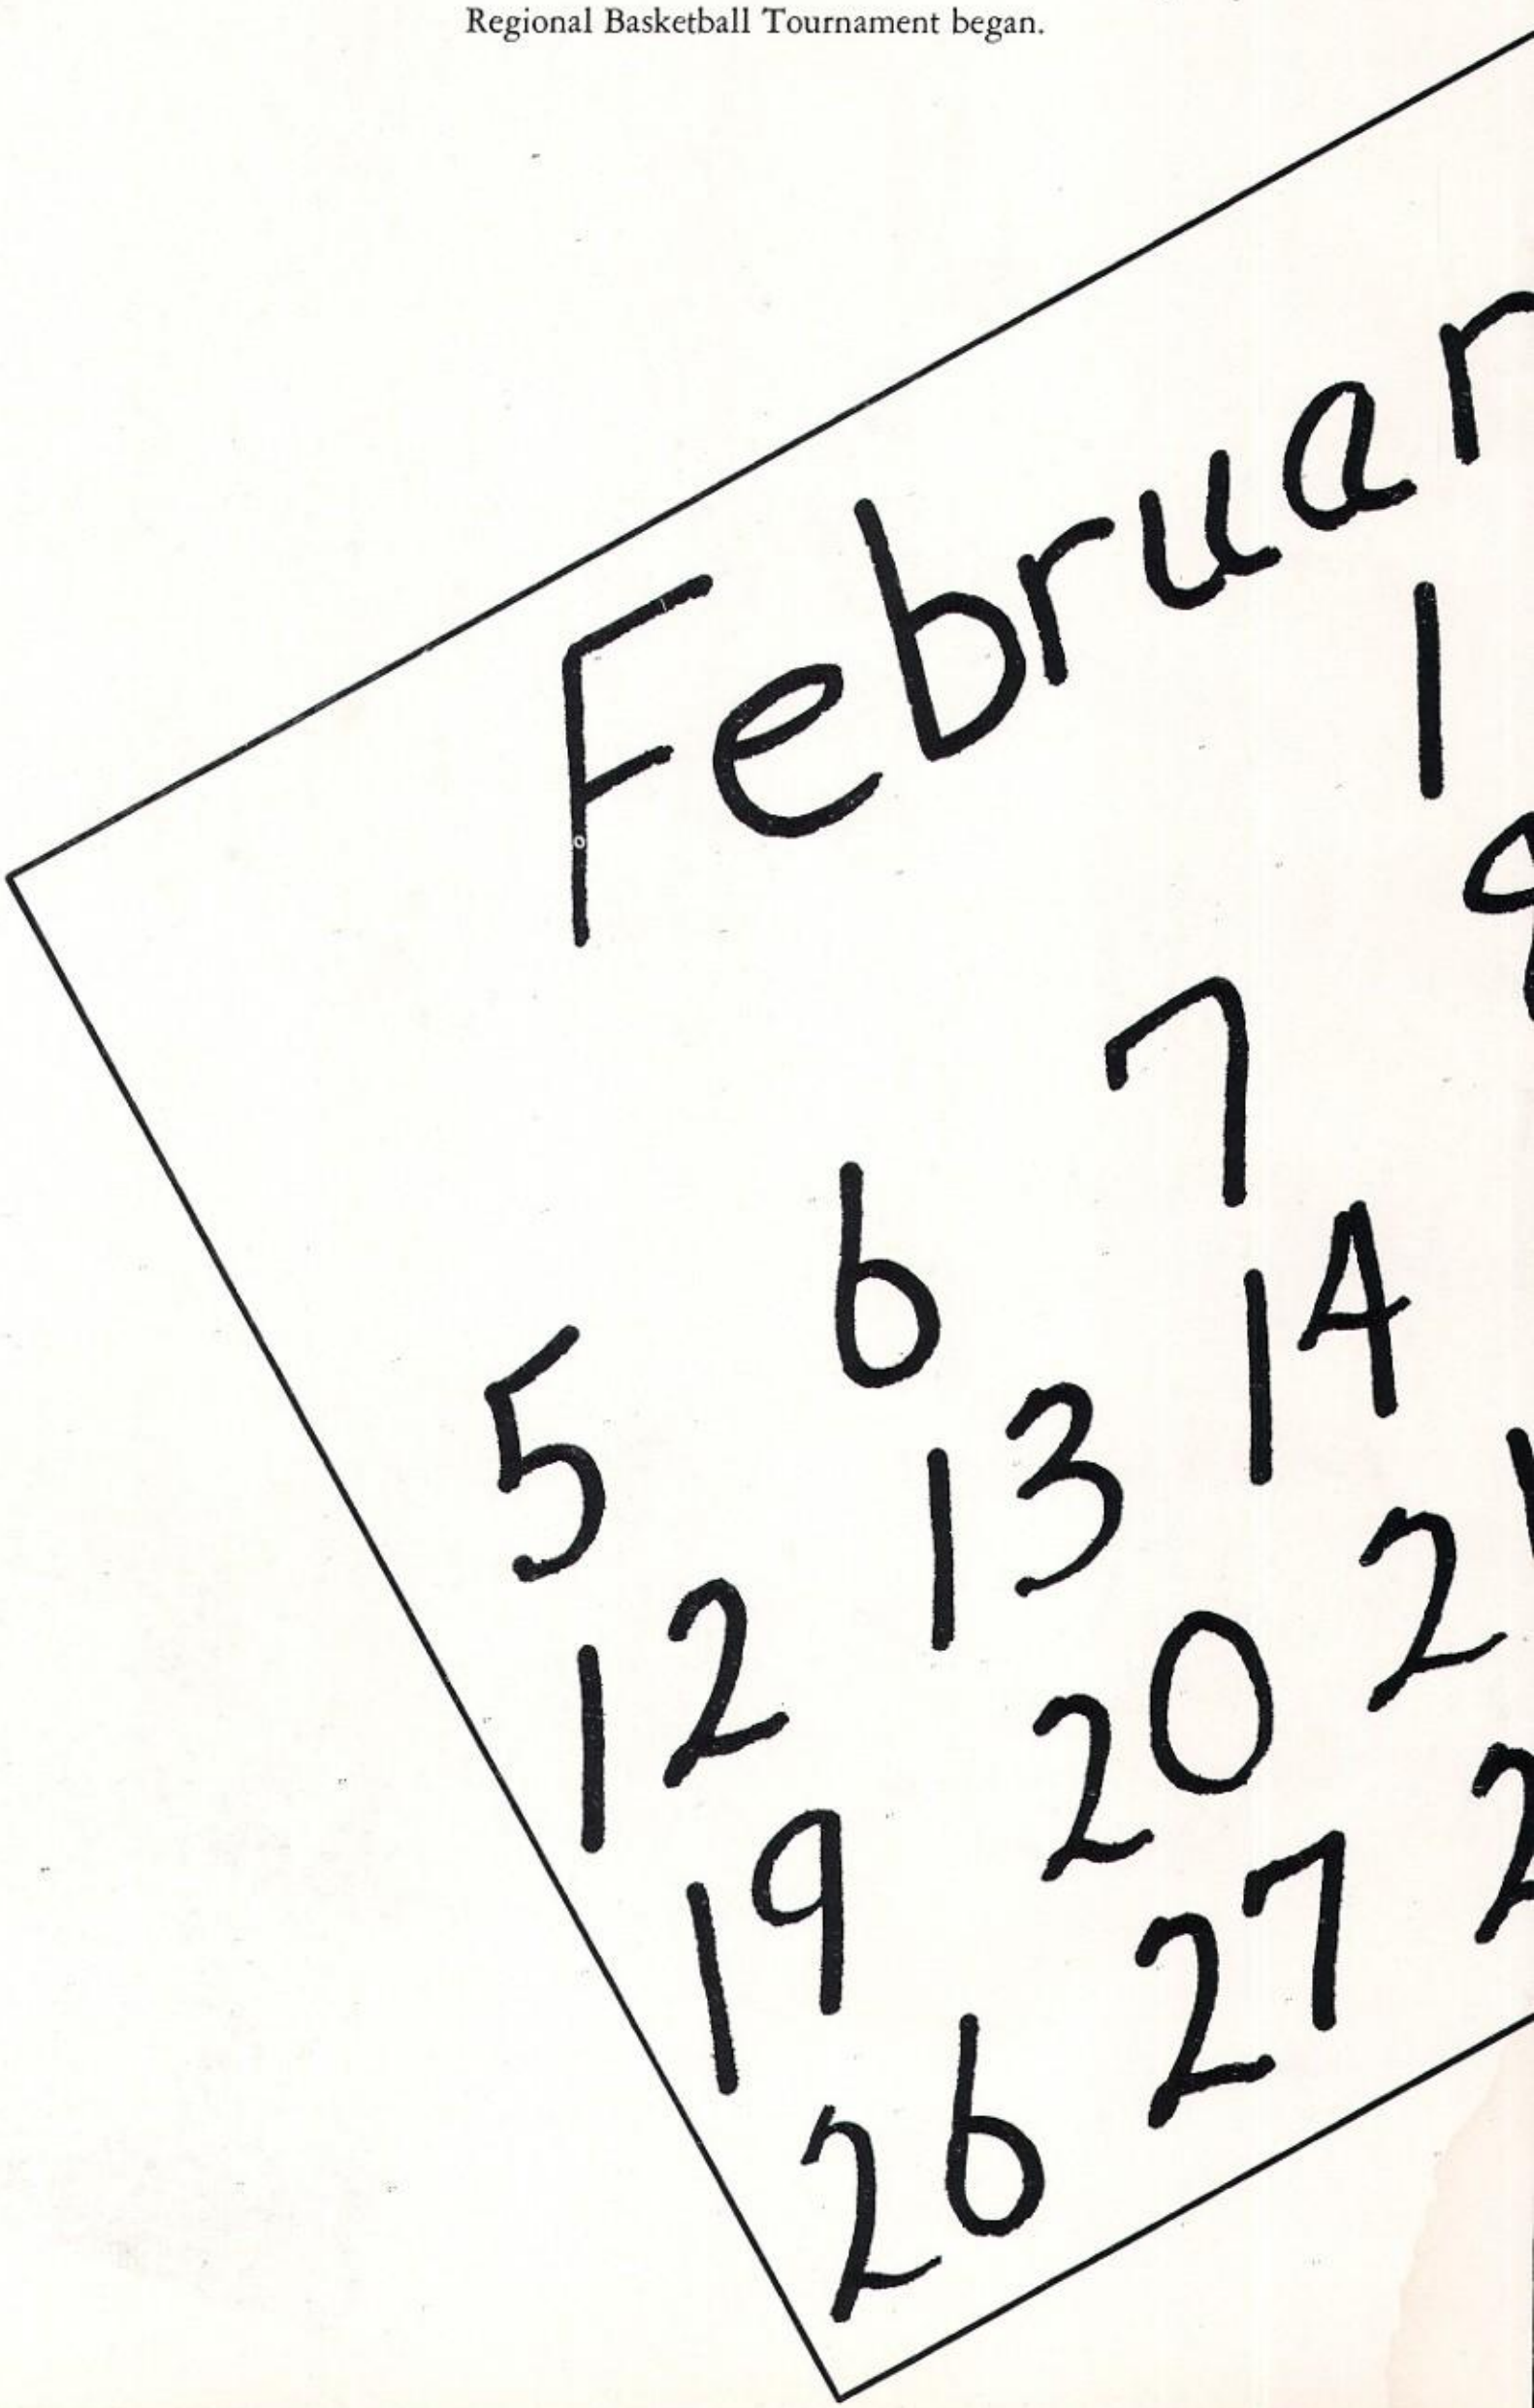
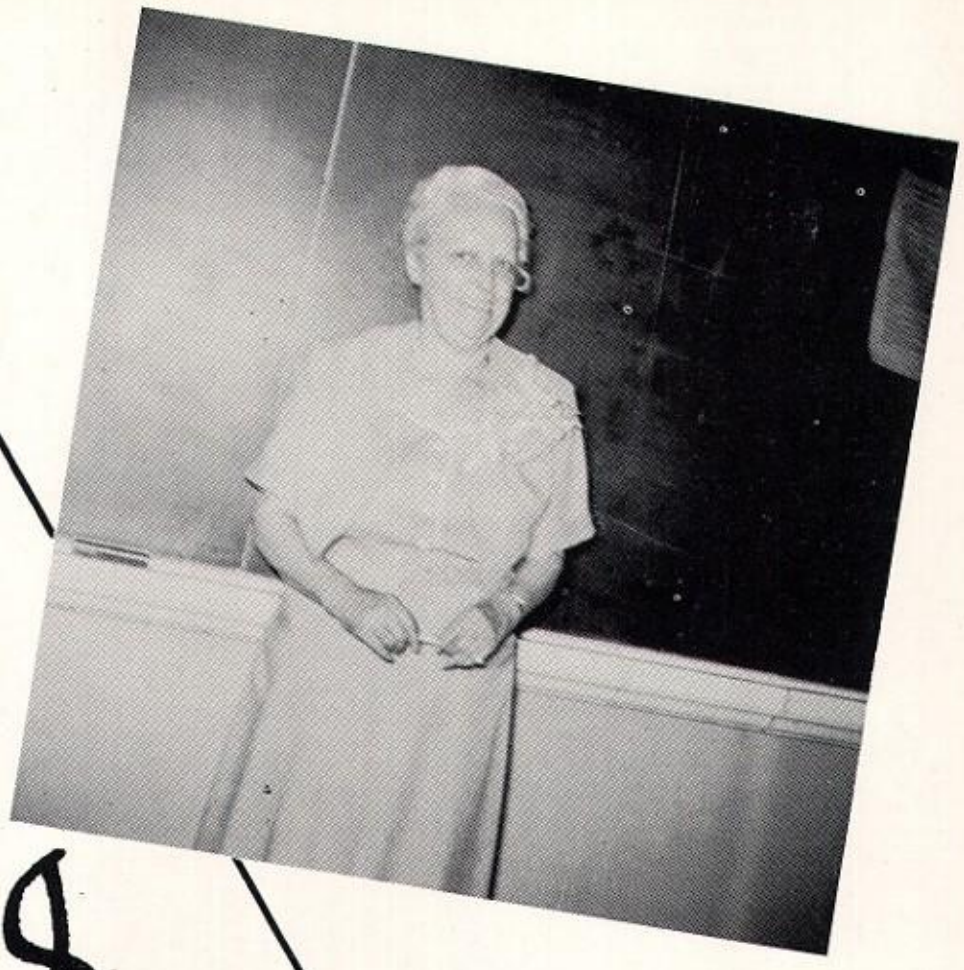
School resumed after Christmas vacation January 3. Then the first half of our school year was over January 20 so we "racked our brains" for exams January 19 and 20. We learned the nautical terms on January 25 with the Captain Dry Assembly. The girls donned their formals for the annual G.A.A. Dance, "My Blue Heaven," on January 28.



After the East Aurora game, February 11, the P.T.A. sponsored a square dance and cake auction to pay for the new A Cappella robes, and many of us attended. February 21 was a holiday for us when our faculty visited various other schools. Then on February 27 the Regional Basketball Tournament began.





March was a month of basketball tournaments. Beside the high school tournaments, the eighth grade team concluded their invitational tournament by winning the first place trophy. On March 14 everyone was breath-taken by the Schmidts' tumbling act. On March 24 Sycamore was the scene of the solo and ensemble contests. Then on March 26 we had more vacation—this time for Easter.

April 4 was the day everyone decided to dress up for school. We also were entertained by Larry Tobler, the banjo player, in assembly that day. On April 7 Sycamore was again the scene of contest, this time for organizations. April 10 was the day of registration for underclassmen while the seniors relaxed. The vocal music department performed in their spring concert on April 13. The F.F.A. and G.A.A. both held banquets this month. On April 26 another assembly was held featuring John Dallaraux. Then on the 27th the band held their concert.

May, being the end of the school year, was a busy month for all. On May 3rd the Annual Boy-Girl Week Rally was held. Many musicians from Sycohi participated in state music contest, May 4 and 4. The Junior-Senior Prom, "Memories," was held May 5. Our city officials were elected from three parties on May 7. Then May 8 the seniors were guests at Career Day. This was the month of track, gold, and baseball tournaments. May 18 was a busy day for seniors and eighth graders, it being Class Day and the day of the eighth grade dance. The school year came to a close with semester exams May 29 and 31. The seniors, though, did not say good-by until after Baccalaureate and Commencement, June 3 and 4.

Class Will of 1956

Four or more years ago our forbearance brought forth upon this campus a new class conceived in knowledge and dedicated to the proposition that all men are capable of learning more than their predecessors. With this in mind, our last will and testament will now be revealed:

CHARLENE ALBRECHT bestows her gorgeous blond hair to Connie Taylor. Now you won't have to go to the beauty parlor for it, Connie.

Was that ROBERTA ANDERSON that we saw "driving" that strange car last week? Anyway, Roberta leaves her ability to weave along the road to the Driver's Training class.

DOROTHY ARNESON bequeaths her art ability to Eddie Boies. You'll be able to draw someday, Eddie.

JEAN ASKINS leaves for parts unknown in the "Spookmobile." Who's driving?

LORETTA ASTLING leaves her headaches over this year's publications to the Sycohi newspaper editor next year. Don't forget the aspirins, now!

To Gary Phipps, DOROTHY BECKER wills her job at the Sycamore library. Watch out for those bookworms, Gary!

GENE BEHLER parts with sweet sorrow from his grade school fan club.

ELAINE BENSON leaves her ability to "knock out" boys—class play style—to Patty Craigen.

FRANCES BLADE leaves for nurse's training and all those doctors and patients. Watch your step, Fran!

RONNIE BOWMAN hands over his "quiet" chuckle to Jim Joiner. Think you can use it, Jim?

MARJORIE BUELL leaves for a corner cafe. Life wouldn't be worth living without coffee, would it, Marj?

ARLISS BUZZELL gives her marvelous, wavy hair to Jean Sheley. No permanent needed now, Jean.

JUANITA CAMPBELL leaves her "holey" gym shoes for the showerroom moths to finish.

BOB CAMPBELL leaves his night hawking to any hawk that wants to go out nights. How about that, Jerry Larson?

JAMES MUNGY AGNES FOXY CARLSON wills his dancing ability to Dennis Carpenter.

KENT CARLSON leaves his job at Arisons to any up and coming D. O.'er.

PHYLLIS CARLSON leaves one bag of feed to Larry Troutman—compliments of Fleetwood's Feedmill.

JOHN CLARK hands down his nuclear, electronical phi-chem-biological ability to Kenny Davy. Don't work too hard, Kenny.

ANN COAN feels that more Sycamore girls should get acquainted with Rochelle; therefore, she wills her twinkle eyes, giggles, and smiles to Marge Read.

PAT CRETSINGER bequeaths her shy, coy, smile to Jane Swedberg. Need we say more?

PAT CROSBY leaves: but comes back to tell us, "Golly, I'm glad!"

SALLY DAVIS, who has certainly enjoyed her joy rides on the Clare bus, leaves for a tour of the United States on a Greyhound. Just like riding on a feathered pillow, huh, Sally?

JOHN DENBY leaves wondering what he'll do with all his spare time, now that he hasn't any detentions to do.

DAVID DRENCKPOHL, better known as D.W.D., leaves his "big" words and philosophy to untired-tongue, Joe Trapp.

Say, what's this I hear about Route 64—out the Annie Glidden way—being worn out? Maybe JOHN DUNMORE could tell us the reason. How about that, Bruno?

SHARON DUNLAP bequeaths her curly-que locks and Southern drawl to Sandy Thomas.

PHYLLIS EGGERS slams the door and says, "You won't catch me around this place anymore!"

JOYCE ELLIOT departs to ringing bells—of the cash register at the National Tea.

LOUISE EMENHEISER leaves . . . still talking.

JANICE ERLEWINE departs to enjoy living with the cows and pigs in Burlington. A good ole' farm gal!

TERRY FLEETWOOD leaves his everlasting good naturedness to all students who come to school on Monday with a frown caused by the weekend before.

JOHN FLORENT leaves his ability to "shoot the bull" to Carol Hodge.

JIM FOSTER bequeaths his empire stature to Glenn Paulson. Use it sparingly, Glenn!

BILL FRAEDRICH leaves to become the Arthur Murray of the roller skating rink.

DARLENE FRANTUM leaves for another night of fun at the Blue Moon. Watch those polkas and that Swede, Darlene!

BERT FREDRICK rushes out the west door, tears down to his car, tightly clutching his diploma and roars away to that thriving little community, Clare.

PHYLLIS GORBET leaves her gentle disposition in the typing class where she lost it.

SANDY GUSTAFSON leaves her profuse dirt-spreading technique to the future suckers who edit the will.

EVELYN HALL leaves her miraculous bookkeeping figures to anyone who dares tackle them. Watch out, kids!

NANCY HARDESTY has changed her mind in order to join the WAF's. Could Dave be the reason?

RICHARD HENIGAN leaves school peacefully, we hope. Now all the teachers can breathe easily.

JAYNE HENRY wills her love of gym class to anyone who'll take it. Hey, juniors, seventh hour is a great temptation to skip. Don't we know, Jayne?

LOIS HINDENBURG leaves her job as Mr. Hauswald's assistant to Kathy Gooch. Chemistry will be a breeze next year, won't it, Kathy?

KAREN HILSTROM leaves her love of boys to Kathy Morris.

DOROTHY HODGE bequeaths her ability of joke telling to Caroline Muns.

JOHN HOLCOMB and his "dainty" tuba take off for way down yonder———!

IRENE JACOX tried to leave unnoticed, but we finally cornered her after bribing her with a red lollipop and half of our bubble gum.

MARGARET JENNINGS leaves on a slow boat for China—or maybe farther. Who knows?

GLORIA JOHNSON bequeaths her quiet ways to Nancy Moyers . . . but quiet ways and Nancy just don't go together.

MARK JOHNSTON leaves his "All-American Boy" complex to Gary Smith.

To any girl who is sly enough to catch 'em, we bequeath ETHEL JOLLY's out-of-town friends.

DARLENE KELLER takes off in her little black Chevy for —who knows where? Down South, maybe?

ALTA KUNTZ leaves her refined and lady-like manners to Lou Ann Yeast and bids her to make use of them.

KATHY LEINAUER very proudly leaves her dainty, feminine charm to Rosaline Henigan. Now I've seen everything!

BOB LINDGREN leaves, but takes along his bucket—or his football helmet. If you don't believe this, just ask Bob if you can take a swim in it.

JACK LINDSTROM sadly presents his seat on the bench to Ray Riffle. Now you'll be sure to have a good front seat, Ray.

To the on-coming freshmen, LOIS LLOYD leaves her sweet personality and likeable atmosphere. Don't forget to respect your upperclassmen, kids.

JACQUIE MABEL leaves her extra pep to be divided among the cheerleaders. Don't bounce to the ceiling, girls!

NANCY MARTIN leaves, but she's happy because she's leavin' with Don in his limousine—and beard—with which neither could bear to part.

I hear LAURA LEE MAVEUS is fiddling around with a fiddler. What's the pitch, Laura Lee?

SALLY MIDDLETON bequeaths her love of cats to anyone who is "catty" enough to have them around.

ELIZABETH MILLER WHITNEY leaves old Sycohi to take up a life of wedded bliss. How are your biscuits, Liz?

RALPH MUNS, with that sideward glance, consented to leave his modest mannerism to some worthy individual. Upon looking over the crowd, we found just the one—Tom Fleetwood.

NANCY NIEWOLD departs with her short, black hair—or is it the long brown ponytail, Nancy?

PAT O'CONNOR bequeaths his typical Irishness to "Yogi" Swedberg. Now don't all you Swedes turn green.

The world is in too much of a rush now-a-days. To help to restore it to normal, KAREN OLSON bequeaths her leisure ways to Ric Lahti.

BARBARA OUIMET leaves her cute, little giggling spells to Nancy Synder.

HAROLD "JOE" PEPLOW leaves his speed and hurdling ability to the Russians. U.S.A.—Here we come.

BOB QUIGLEY bestows his bashfulness when around girls to Joel Lalley. Something had to be done!

KENNY RAYMOND leaves a wad of gum stuck under a chair in every classroom. Who knows—maybe next year the freshies might want it.

To Carol Johnson, NANCY REH bequeaths her "Why Worry" attitude. Why worry, Carol? It'll all come out in the end.

DONNA ROGERS and KENNETH PARSONS leave to Judith Anderson and Tom Percy their method of creating an everlasting partnership.

NORMA SABEL and her ring leave in a hurry, for she has an engagement.

RONNIE SALEMI bequeaths his "loudness" to his brother, Louie. Please, keep it in the family, boys.

Since HARLAN SCOTT won't be driving next year, he wills his share of the road to Jerry Kitchen. With that girl from DeKalb, you'll probably need it, Jerry.

CHUCK SIBLEY leaves his harem of DeKalb women to Morrie McPherson. Be careful, Morrie.

FRED SIBLEY leaves his half of the old Plymouth to the science laboratory as a can for boiling water.

GEORGIA SLONIKER leaves, swinging down the lane. Hep, two, three, four. Hep, two, three, four.

DONALD SMITH trades in his car to Mr. Flick for his bicycle. The Ford will do the same work with less energy required, though more torture.

WANDA STILES departs on a long journey to California. It must be nice, Wanda!

WILDA STILES leaves with visions of wedding bells ringing in her head.

CAROL STROBERG wills her usual nightly dates to Judy Craig. It's a great life, Judy, if ya' don't need toothpicks to keep your eyes open the next day, huh, Carol?

Will KENNETH SWANSON become another Charles Laughton in the near future? Of course, he will—and we hear that he especially likes those love scenes.

JERRY THOMAS leaves his "Weakness for Blondes" to Tony Whitney. Let's not hit the bottle now, girls—peroxide, that is!

GEORGE THOMAS is aching to have all the free time possible with a certain, sweet, little Elgin girl. Pay it cool, Gopher.

ELMER TROUTMAN leaves behind his one and only prize possession and departs without anything. He's had it!

JIM TUCKER leaves his Swedish intelligence and good looks to Donnie Sherer and bids everyone a sweet farewell to Stockholm.

ORRIN VANDEBURG bequeaths his place on the honor roll to Chuck James in order that the latter may graduate.

DANNY WARNER leaves his ability to keep in training to Jim Mandry. "Happy birthday, Daddy!"

To Allen Burke, ELSIE WAVELET bequeaths her ability to sling hash. Now you can throw hash along with that corn, Al.

CAROL WILKIN departs for the hills, trees, and lakes in Minnesota. Sure there isn't another reason, Carol?

IMOGENE WILSON leaves to spend her spare time in Genoa now.

Signed, sealed, and sworn to on this eighteenth day of May, by the unforgettable class of 1956.

Class Prophecy of 1956

Now, for a few minutes, you shall be guests of the Sycohi fortune teller and have a gaze into the crystal ball. The scene around Sycamore has now changed. It is the year 1961, and Sycamore has been enclosed in a huge bubble with temperature of 70 degrees and palm trees surround the unroofed houses.

Nancy Niewold has become well-known as a hair stylist, using her own children as models.

Charlene Albrecht is president and general manager of Light and Bright, Inc.

Now that Jeannie Askins has become of age, we see her enjoying the night life—that is until 10:30 P.M.

Roberta Anderson has just finished her book, How To Win Friends and Influence People.

Loretta Astling has now taken over Frank Dean's position as editor-in-chief of the Sycamore Daily Tribune.

Dorothy Becker has now attained the position of chief librarian.

Gene Behler has advanced from reporter of the DeKalb Chronicle to editor of Playboy Magazine.

Ron Bowman, married two months following graduation, is now giving his 6' 8" sons tips on basketball.

We find Marj Buell is now in Washington lobbying for farm price supports.

Poor Nita is still working at the First National Bank, with no promotions in sight.

Sandy Gustafson and Margaret Jennings have taken over their fathers' professions and are now competing, tooth for tooth.

Bob Campbell has won international fame in the roller derby.

When December comes, we find Mungie Carlson acting as Santa Claus in Sycamore's loop to his classmates' children.

Phyllis Carlson is now leading a busy life. Aside from tending to the little Fleetwoods, she also is doing the bookkeeping for Arrow Feed Company.

Fran Blade has now taken over Marlyn's Majorettes and has her own studio.

Professor John Clark, recently returned from Antarctica, is now planning an expedition to the moon.

Janice Erlewine has a full-time job teaching her little girls to become clerks for Henderson's and the little boys to become golden gloves boxers.

Ann Coan has added a new department to Murphy's 5 & 10—a beauty salon.

We see an article in the paper telling about the fame Dorothy Arneson's exhibit in the Art Institute has brought her.

George Thomas has brought his high school sweetheart from Elgin back to Sycamore and finally settled down.

Gary Holland is now running a 500-acre farm, specializing in purebred hogs.

Gloria Johnson is guardian of the Sycamore Bethel of the Job's Daughters.

Darlene Keller is now head of a pollenating crew in southern Illinois.

Ethel Jolly has her own beauty shop in Colorado.

Alta Kuntz is happily married and busy tending to her many children.

Because of her devotion to pigs throughout high school, Kathryn Leinauer has been chosen as champion hog caller.

Bob Lindgren is owner of an auto sales company, so that he can keep with the tradition of changing autos each year.

Jack Lindstrom is now proprietor of the Chain of Cabins at Lake Delavan.

Ralph Muns is now leading Sycohi's band.

What's this? Pat O'Connor in a new Cadillac convertible? Guess his little store in Clare must have really paid off.

Karen Olson is now star of the annual Sycamore Rodeo.

Looks as if Sycamore has turned out a new comedienne, Barbara Quimet, replacing Martha Raye. Good luck, Barb!

Guess farming was really a prosperous business for Bob Quigley. Here he comes in a striking new white Ford with a platinum steering wheel and solid gold duals.

Nancy Reh is still following "Bub and His Boys." Looks as if her feet will never wear out.

Ronnie Salemi has added on to the Chain of Drive-Ins of the family property, with his new Drive-In Theater.

Wanda Stiles is employed at Salem's Drive-In Theatre as chief ticket-taker.

Jim Tucker has just sailed for Sweden to "brush up" on his Swedish accent.

Orrin Vandeburg is Ag teacher at the local high school.

Danny Warner is game warden of Illinois, with the assistance of his faithful dog, "Jocko."

Carol Wilken has now received her next degree in matrimony and is waiting for the last degree, that of Mrs.

"Always a bridesmaid, never a bride" does not hold true for

Imogene Wilson as she recently hooked her man.

Soon after graduation, Wilda Stiles Ryan and Elizabeth Miller Whitney organized the Young Married Couples Society.

During her moments of embarrassment, Dorothy Hodge is being used as a model on color TV—for experimental purposes.

After less than a decade in Northern Illinois, Norma Sable has finally become acquainted with our dialect.

The appointment made back in 1956 has proven true, for Donna Rogers is now head of the Water Works Department in Sycamore.

Ken Parsons must be conserving his money, for he is still driving his 1956 Ford.

Elmer Troutman has just been named president of the Benedicts, the recently formed exclusive bachelor's club of Sycamore.

Elsie Wavelet has just returned from a long trip in the West, only to find her former eighth grade friend's infatuation has decreased.

Kenny Raymond, who became greatly interested in American history while he was at Sycohi, is now teaching that course in Sycamore's suburban village of DeKalb.

Elaine Benson has just won the starring role in Ken Swanson's newest play on Broadway.

Arliss Buzzell has married and has a family of four children—all with straight hair !

Kent Carlson and Bill Fraedrich have set up their own repair service—thanks to D. O.!

Pat Cretsinger is on a week's vacation in Canada, swimming, boating, and spear-fishing.

Who's that blond coming down the street? That couldn't be Pat Crosby, could it? She must have dyed her hair.

Sally Davis and John Denby have been holding lectures on the advantages and disadvantages on attending school regularly.

We just heard of the new boat industry being built on Water Street—Flor-Dun-Drenck-Pep, Inc., with Joe Peplow designing, John Florent and Dave Drenckpohl building, and John Dunmore test-driving. Here's hoping they'll always stay afloat!

As we drive by the hospital, we see a familiar face in the window. Why, it's Sharon Dunlap busy at work counting corpuscles!

Joyce Elliott has been promoted to head cashier of the National with Don Smith as her boss.

Phyllis Eggers has just married a doctor she met while at Northwestern. She must be trying to keep it in the family.

Louise Emenheiser has taken up her father's profession but has been sent to the jungles of Africa as a missionary.

Jayne Henry is now babysitting for former President Eisenhower's grandchildren. Her experience with the Katz's and the Ovitz's really has helped.

We now see Terry Fleetwood driving in the Saturday night races at the Rockford Speedway.

Darlene Frantum is teaching the new dance steps she learned at Blue Moon.

It looks like the 1955 football team of Sycohi has been reunited on the Chicago Bears. "Monk" Henigan is playing fullback, "Rusty" Johnston playing halfback, and "Bert" Fredrick as quarterback.

Evelyn Hall has quietly settled down and is taking over the old homestead.

Everywhere we look, we see cabs belonging to the newly established Gorbet and Daughter Taxi Service.

Nancy Hardesty has moved to the "Lone Star" state. She is riding her trusty steed, accompanying her yodeling partner with her guitar.

Karen Hilstrom has become a New York career girl, still playing the field.

Lois Hindenburg has been hired as Mr. Hauswald's assistant because of the great increase in enrollment of the science classes.

John Holcom is manager-in-chief of the Holcomb Lumber Yard.

Georgia Sloniker and Nancy Martin are raising their own corps of the Waves and sailors.

Harlan Scott is now driving a Willys. This one seems to fit him better than the Buick he drove during his high school days.

As we now see our classmates of 1956, we can never dream of so many different and interesting things happening to the members of our class—but our crystal ball never fails!
